

How-To Booklet for New Puppy Owners

- Help your clients get a good start on their training foundations with this 28 page booklet specifically designed for young puppies.
- Bridge the gap between the time puppies come home until they are old enough to enroll in a puppy class.
- Answers the most common “new puppy” questions - valuable resource for your clients and your staff.

Case holds 15 booklets; refill case for $50, tax and delivery included or $3.35 each booklet. Recommended resale at $5 per booklet. Booklets available singly for $5 plus postage

Author is one of Alabama's most decorated trainers having earned scores of titles, certificates, honors, and competitive achievements in a variety of canine sports over a 20 year career. Kim Crenshaw has been teaching classes and private lessons for 18 years and has extensive experience in answering pet owner questions. Free consultations offered to clinics who stock booklets.

Call 205-705-9272 or e-mail kim@bhamdogtrainer to order or re-order. Credit cards accepted via Pay Pal.